Esther M. Lofton

March 30, 2011

Letters to the Editor
L.A. Times
202 W. First (1st) Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear Sir:

What black, especially male, needs another enemy when he has someone like Justice Clarence Thomas to deliver a 5-4 decision (which he supports without equivocation of any kind or type) to shield the New Orleans District attorney's office for being held liable for...mistakes (Supreme Court overturns verdict against prosecutors, L. A. Times, 03-30-11, p. A11)... Isn't that what courts are for...to hold others liable for wrongs committed? Where did he learn his type of law, in Africa or from President Barack Obama?

This man, John Thomas, spent 14 years on death row because of this conviction. Like former speaker of the Assembly of the State of California, Jesse Unruh said, "These policy makers should get the thrill of their policymaking". I cannot possibly imagine what it was like for Mr. Thomas during those 14 years where even assuming the world around me had grown mad seemed comforting.

But I do have a question for law-abiding people of California and of the United States of America, How long must we, the most politically weak Americans, endure representation that's killing us, a type of representation that precipitated the birth of this nation?

IMPEACH...FIRE, JUSTICE CLARENCE THOMAS!!!.. NOW!!!

Sincerely,

Esther M. Lofton

(Esther M. Lofton)