

“As an African American, the all-out attacks on Michele Bachmann to protect Barack Obama, a man who could not care or do less for Black America sickens me.

George Stephanopolous, once a partisan hack who betrayed President Clinton now carries the water for President Obama because they speak the same language: Ivy League elite, who don't care about ordinary Americans, obsessed with their own celebrity.

There are MORE Founding Fathers than George Washington, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson. There were abolitionists who fought tirelessly to end slavery. Frederick Douglass comes to mind, so does Garrison. What about Josiah Wedgwood? Thurgood Marshall, for the purposes of Black America and racial equality can be considered a Founding Father.

William Wilberforce, stood in the face of ignorance and presented a bill to abolish slavery every year he lived to try, until Parliament did so in 1833. He refused to give up.

History books wrongly credit Abraham Lincoln with the title de-facto leader of the abolitionist movement in America.

There is no reason to savagely attack Michele Bachmann for the ignorance of America's past. Children across America are still taught the myths of early American history that we were.

Bachmann is TRYING to reach out to Black America. President Obama, supposedly a black man, ignores Black America wholesale. Once Obama got what he wanted (votes and legitimacy to win the Dem primary) he left.

Yet the calvacade of cartoonish "black" figures like Cornell Belcher, Roland Martin, Donna Brazille and Al Sharpton continue to make us look foolish by taking their blind devotion to Obama public, while ordinary black people are wasting away on city streets and dirt roads in rural communities.

Until Black America can come to grips with ignorance, and rise above it, arrogant liars like Obama will exploit our people for personal gain and leave us worse than he found us. Michele Bachmann is a foster mom to 23 children, and has walked the walk. Women face worse discrimination and insults on a daily basis than we often do as black people. Look at the attacks on her here!

Give someone else a chance to help Black America. President Obama isn't qualified.”

If I were to meet you in person, I would kiss the ground that you walk on for:

- (1) Speaking the truth about President Barack Obama, and/or others who as you state, “.....a man who could not care or do less for Black America sickens me”
- (2) Being the few and far between among the university educated who speaks the truth to the masses of the rank and file in the Black community.

Furthermore truly innocent Black men, women, and/or his or her siblings who petition President Barack Obama, and/or other dysfunctional elected Black leaders affiliated with the liberal Democratic Party for redress of grievances, to which President Obama and the like choose to ignore, trash, and/or discredit honorable law abiding U.S. born black descendants of slavery, end up being further oppressed by the disgraceful and treasonous actions of a dysfunctional and truly no good elected Black leadership.

CNN Black in America: During a televised airing on CNN of “Black in America” specifically as it relates to former Senator Barack Obama and Chicago Community Organizing, it was shown where Black kids were eating and breathing asbestos. Black residents complained, and an asbestos abatement crew arrived to remove asbestos from building management's front office, leaving the rest of the Black residents to suffer. It is common knowledge as to the harmful permanent lung damaging and cancer causing agents associated with breathing asbestos fibers. CNN basically made it plain to any viewer that Barack Obama walked away from this serious asbestos health related set of incidents, to do nothing. Some community organizer, civil rights lawyer, or indeed truly incompetent elected official this guy must be. Barack Obama was more concerned about his own claim to fame and not the best interests of any Black community. Barack Obama went on to Harvard Law School, graduated from Harvard Law School, returning to the South Side of Chicago to do more of the same, meaning to do nothing, other than to use the plight of poor residents of the South Side Chicago Black community to promote himself to elected office. He has yet to practice law to use his expertise to file claims against the perpetrators for wrongful death, violation of property rights, violation of Constitutional rights, asbestos claims for damages, etc., in behalf of any truly innocent Black man, woman, or child victimized by the serious violation of law or health violations of any perpetrator. Barack Obama has however authored worthless "Racial Profiling" initiatives which will not bring redress in behalf of any victim(s), nor will this curtail any perpetrators future involvement or make for effective action to stop unlawful wrongful death, unwarranted jailing, unwarranted fining, unjustified maiming or killing, serious violation of property rights, violation of Constitutional rights, asbestos claims for damages, etc., in behalf of any innocent Black man, woman, or child victimized by the serious violation of law or health violations of others. Unlike tort practice to which mega-bucks in damages in behalf of any victim(s) are indeed possible, worthless "Racial Profiling" bills lack any punitive or exemplary damage benefit. Drafting racial profiling bills enable perpetrators to be exonerated of any financial liability for any harm done to the innocent.

Oath of Office of the President: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm)that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

.....and this is a big issue with namely elected Black leaders such as President Obama.....

.....who have shown no duty to live up to his or her oath of office to uphold the rule of law, the U.S. Constitution, a respective State Constitution in behalf of U.S. born law abiding Black men, women, etc., egregiously violated by serious atrocities of a government seriously gone awry!

.....and this is reason enough to condemn President Obama and/or other misfits who don't have a clue as to the essence of what it means to be a elected official!
