

"THE JOB OF THE CONGRESSMAN"

"There are cases where an individual has been wrongfully treated by his government and about the only way, unless the individual resorts to court, and even in some cases the courts are not able to give proper relief, the only area or avenue open to the individual is through his representative. When you find a bona fide error has been made, I suggest that you make a maximum effort to remedy it. This I feel is a vital and important function of those of us in the House of Representatives".

Authors: Donald G. Tacheron and Morris Udall, from the book entitled, "THE JOB OF THE CONGRESSMAN", pages 65 and 66.

(The above holds true for any elected office holder, or American citizen.)
